

Legal notice

You are browsing the website www.wbmy.lu (hereinafter “the Website”), which is the property of Banque Internationale à Luxembourg, BIL (hereinafter “the Bank”). The site is hosted by a third party (Financial Sector Professional approved by the Luxembourg Financial Supervisory Authority (Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier – CSSF)), which is subject to the following conditions.

Protection of personal data

Use of the Website may lead to the disclosure of users’ personal data. The Bank processes such data in accordance with legal requirements and uses the users’ personal data in connection with the selection of candidates for the Woman Business Manager of the Year Award. In accordance with data protection legislation, users have the right to access, correct and delete their personal information. If you intend to exercise these rights, please inform us accordingly using our contact form. Personal data may be kept for up to four years.

The data will be stored with a Financial Sector Professional approved in Luxembourg, and will be encrypted. The system automatically registers your computer’s IP address. Your personal data will not be shared with any other commercial company other than the Bank and its Woman Business Manager of the Year Award partners, namely the Luxembourg Employers’ Association (Union des Entreprises Luxembourgeoises – UEL), the Luxembourg National Institute for Sustainable Development and Corporate Social Responsibility (Institut National pour le Développement durable et la Responsabilité sociale des entreprises – INDR), Technoport and nyuko. The Bank and its partners undertake not to misuse the data entrusted to them.
